Message from the Hon'ble Vice Chancellor

Indira Gandhi National Tribal University's journey towards excellence is in its eleventh year. The success of the University has largely been because of the success of each teaching Department. As a tribal university located in rural setting, the University aims to bring innovations in teaching and learning process in interdisciplinary studies and researches with special attention to improve the social, educational and economic conditions and welfare of the scheduled tribes of the region in particular and that of the whole nation in general.

Located amidst lush green vegetation of Amarkantak hills, the main campus of IGNTU is an alpine meadow with natural stream flowing within. The panoramic view of the campus not only captures the breath of hundreds of visitors' everyday but makes it a pleasant heaven for around 2500 students from across the country who have chosen IGNTU for their Graduate, Post Graduate and Doctoral studies.

I am happy to acknowledge and appreciate the progress in Department of Tourism Management which has been creating milestones constantly over the years. Starting from the year 2008, the Department has created a niche for itself not only in the country but in the international arena.

The national and international MoUs of the Department with Indian Institute of Tourism and Travel Management (IITTM), Belarusian University of Physical Culture and the University of Applied Sciences, Vidzemes Augstskola, Latvia reflect the global ambition of the Department.

With highly qualified faculty, the Department is all set to be the country's leading tourism institution. I am happy to announce at this juncture that a state-of-the-art building of 40 crore outlay is on offing for the Faculty. There shall be independent computer and language lab, exclusive well-furnished auditorium and separate open-air auditorium for the faculty to shape the growing demands of professional students. I have a dream to see students of the campus realising their dreams.

I wish the Faculty and the students of the Department very best in their endeavours to attract best recruiters to the campus. I also wish the recruiters a pleasant and fulfilling new year.

Prof. T.V Kattimani
Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor,
IGNTU, Amarkantak.
