5.4.12. A PhD scholar shall not be permitted to join any other degree course. However, he/she may be permitted to join part-time Diploma or Certificate Course(s) by the DRC on the recommendation of the RAC provided it is not detrimental to his/her research programme.

6. Research supervisor/co-supervisor

The University shall prepare a list of eligible research supervisors/co-supervisors recommended by DRC and approved by the Research Degree Committee of the University (RDCU).

6.1. Eligibility for Research Supervisor /co-supervisor

6.1.1. Only a full time regular teacher of the University can act as a supervisor; external supervisors are not allowed. However, co-supervisor can be allowed in when and where needed from the same or other departments of the University or from other institutions on the request of Research Advisory Committee (RAC), with the approval of concerned DRC.

6.1.2. Any regular Professor and Associate Professor of the IGNTU, Amarkantak, including Regional Campuses, provided that s/he must have published five research papers/articles/book in journal of national and international repute, during the last five years of their service shall be eligible to be appointed as supervisors and co-supervisor.

6.1.3. Any Assistant Professor of the IGNTU, Amarkantak, including Regional Campuses who have completed their probation period, and holds a PhD degree, as well as s/he must have two research papers/articles/book published in journal of national and international repute shall be eligible to be appointed as supervisors and co-supervisors.

Provided that in area/discipline where there is no or only limited number of refereed journals, the University may relax the above condition for recognition of a person as Research Supervisor with reasons recorded in writing.

6.1.4. A faculty member on retirement may be appointed or continue as co-supervisor, if s/he is reemployed or appointed as Emeritus Professor/Scientist/ Fellow on retirement by the University.

6.1.5. A faculty member who is due to retire within the next three years (62 Years of age) can be appointed as a supervisor and can continue as co-supervisor even after his/her retirement provided the DRC is convinced of his/her availability for continued guidance to the candidate.

6.1.6. A teacher who has retired/resigned from the University service, may continue to be the supervisor, if the research scholar has fulfilled the minimum period requirement (i.e., 3 years) for the submission of the thesis as laid down in these regulations.

6.1.7. Scientists/Scientific Officers/Research Officers / Research Fellows, who are appointed for a minimum of 5 years period under research projects funded by national (INSPIRE, RECHARGE, Ramanujam and Ramalingam Fellowship etc.) and state level funding agencies in the University and who hold PhD degree shall also be eligible as co-supervise for PhD scholars.

6.1.8. Emeritus Professors /Scientists/Fellows appointed by the University or any national organization, shall be eligible as co-supervisor for PhD scholars, provided their tenure of appointment left in the University as emeritus professor/scientist/fellows is for a period not less than three years at the time of enrolment of research scholar.

6.1.9. No teacher shall be allowed to supervise/co-supervise his/her blood relatives.

6.2. Allocation of Research Supervisor and Appointment of New Supervisor

6.2.1. Immediately after admission of the candidate (within one month), the concerned DRC shall appoint a supervisor for the candidates from the list of eligible supervisors, and decide the tentative title of his/her research work. The allocation of research supervisor shall depend on the number of scholars per research supervisor, the available specialization among the supervisors and research interests of the scholars as indicated by them at the time of interview/viva voce;

6.2.2. The University shall promote inter-disciplinary and cutting edge research.

6.2.3. In case of topics which are of inter-disciplinary nature where the Department concerned feels that the expertise in the Department has to be supplemented from outside, the Department may appoint a Research Supervisor from the Department itself, who shall be known as the Research Supervisor, and a Co-Supervisor from outside the Department/ Faculty/College/Institution on such terms and conditions as may be specified and agreed upon by the consenting departments/institutions.

6.2.4. The request for appointing an external co-supervisor shall not be permitted after two years to the date of registration;

6.2.5. In case where the supervisor of the candidate is appointed in a sister or allied departments of the university, provision for transfer of the candidate pursuing research under his/her supervision in the earlier department shall be available provided the candidate opts for it and the DRC of the concerned department agree to the proposed transfer. However, the research scholar, subsequent upon transfer, shall be governed by the rules of the department/faculty to which he/she is transferred.

6.2.6. If the supervisor of a candidate proceeds on leave for a period of more than 12 months, s/he may request the concerned DRC to appoint a co-supervisor for the student. However, if the candidate submits the abstract of the thesis or the thesis itself before the supervisor proceeds on leave, then the existing supervisor shall continue to be the supervisor.

6.2.7. However, if a supervisor proceeds on a leave for a period more than 12 months or for a period of less than 12 months, but later extends his/her leave beyond 12 months, and there is no co-supervisor for the student, then, s/he shall cease to be the supervisor. The concern DRC will appoint a new supervisor for the student.

6.2.8. In case of relocation of a PhD woman scholar due to marriage or otherwise, the research data shall be allowed to be transferred to the University to which the scholar intends to relocate provided all the other conditions in these regulations are followed in letter and spirit and the research work does not pertain to the project secured by the parent institution/ supervisor from any funding agency. The scholar will however give due credit to the parent guide and the institution for the part of research already done.

6.2.9. If the supervisor of a candidate expires or is terminated from the University service, s/he shall cease to be the supervisor.

6.2.10. In all the cases, where the existing supervisor of a candidate ceases to be the supervisor, the DRC shall appoint the co-supervisor, if any, as the supervisor of the candidate, provided the co-supervisor is from the same discipline. If there is no co-supervisor for the concerned candidate or the co-supervisor is from a different discipline, then the DRC shall appoint a new supervisor.

6.3. Number of research students under a research supervisor/co-supervisor

6.3.1. A Research Supervisor/Co-supervisor who is a Professor, at any given point of time, cannot guide more than Eight (8) PhD scholars. An Associate Professor as Research Supervisor can supervise up to a maximum of six (6) PhD scholars and an Assistant Professor as Research Supervisor can guide up to a maximum of four (4) PhD scholars.

6.3.2. The number of PhD scholars working under a co-supervisor shall also be counted in his/her permissible quota of students.

6.4. Inter-disciplinary Research

6.4.1. A candidate may be permitted or encouraged to do inter-disciplinary research. S/he may be permitted for admission/registration in a department/school/faculty other in which

s/he has obtained his/her Master's degree, depending upon the nature of his/her research problem.

6.4.2. Application for research in inter-disciplinary area shall be considered on the basis of proven ability and aptitude of the candidate for such kind of work.

6.4.3. If needed, the University may develop a list of such teacher with expertise in interface subject as supervisor/co-supervisor, on the recommendation of RDCU.

7. Course work

7.1. The course work shall be treated as prerequisite for PhD preparation.

7.2. Candidates already holding M. Phil degree (completed the course work in M.Phil) through regular program and admitted to the PhD programme may be exempted by the department from the PhD course work. All other candidates admitted to the PhD programme shall be required to complete the PhD course work prescribed by the department/faculty.

7.3. The course work shall be for a minimum period of one semester. Candidates shall have to qualify as per the criteria prescribed by the concerned department/faculty.

7.4. The concerned departments have to ensure that the prescribed course work must get completed during the initial one semester.

7.5. The credit assigned to the PhD program shall be a minimum of 12 credits and maximum of 16 credits.

7.6. A minimum of four credits shall be assigned to one or more courses on Research Methodology, which could cover areas such as quantitative methods, computer applications, research ethics and review of published research in the relevant field, training, field work, etc. Other courses shall be advanced level courses preparing the students for PhD degree.

7.7. The details of the courses, course credits, passing criteria and other related matters shall be determined in accordance with the University ordinances.

7.8. All courses prescribed for PhD course work shall be in conformity with the credit hour instructional requirement and shall specify content, instructional and assessment methods. They shall be duly approved by the authorized academic bodies (i.e., decided by the concerned Board of Studies and approved by the approved by the DRC). Such courses may be from the same faculty where the scholar is enrolled or from other faculties depending upon the nature of research area.

7.9. After completing the course work, the candidate shall appear in a comprehensive examination, the modality of conduct of which shall be decided by the of the concerned department/faculty.

7.10. A PhD scholar has to obtain a minimum of 55% of marks or its equivalent grade in the UGC 7-point scale (or an equivalent grade/CGPA in a point scale wherever grading system is followed) in the course work in order to be eligible to continue in the programme and submit the thesis.

7.11. The course work for the candidates admitted in the PhD program will be conducted once in a year. Only those candidates whose attendance are 75% or above during the course work period will be allowed to appear in the examinations. The concerned department will verify the attendance.

7.12. Candidate through his/her RAC and DRC will submit his first progress report to the academic/examination section.

8. Registration of candidates to the PhD program

8.1. As soon as the candidates are admitted to the Ph.D. programme, they shall be deemed provisionally registered to the programme. The date of registration shall be the date of submission of the Admission fee.

8.2 Within a month of successfully completing the course work examinations, the candidate shall submit synopsis/research plan proposal on the proposed research work to RAC in due consultation with his/her supervisor, in the prescribed format. The chairman RAC shall forward the proposal to DRC for consideration;

8.3 The DRC shall examine the research plan proposal of the candidate, who has to deliver a detailed seminar called “Research Plan Proposal Seminar” before the DRC. The DRC shall submit a panel of three names of external experts not below the rank of University Professor for the approval from the competent authority. The approved name of external expert shall be valid for one year. DRC shall invite approved external expert at the time meeting “Research Plan Proposal Seminar”.

8.4. The DRC on its satisfaction to the research proposal and the seminar shall approve the proposal and the topic of research;

8.5. If any correction/change/improvement is suggested by the DRC, the candidate shall submit a fresh proposal and deliver the seminar within a time limit specified by the DRC

(not exceeding one month in any case), and a fresh evaluation shall be done. But, if only the seminar is unsatisfactory, the candidate shall deliver only the seminar again within one month.

8.5. If the candidate fails to submit the research plan proposal within the stipulated time his/her candidature shall stand cancelled.

8.6. The DRC shall forward its recommendation along with the second progress report of the candidate to the Academic Section with a copy to the Dean of the concerned faculty. The section shall forward the recommendation of the DRC to the RDCU for approval. Once approved, the registration of the scholar shall be deemed confirmed.

9. Cancellation of Registration

The registration of a PhD candidate shall be cancelled by the DRC in any one of the following eventualities:

9.1. If a candidate fails to submit satisfactory report through supervisor regularly for three years (i.e., six half-yearly progress report) his/her registration shall be cancelled.

9.2. If a candidate is absent for a continuous period of four weeks without prior information/sanction of leave.

9.3. If a candidate fails to renew his/her registration in any semester subject to the provisions contained in these regulations.

9.4. If the candidate fails to submit the thesis within the maximum stipulated time as provided in these regulations.

11.1. A PhD Scholar shall be required to be compulsorily present in the University for a period of two years, which is known as the Residency Period (i.e., the duration s/he can not take any other paid assignment).

11.2. For internal research scholar described in clause 5.2.8. and 5.2.9., the residency period shall be of the minimum period required for completing the course work (i.e., six month).

12. Duty or study leaves

12.1. If a PhD scholar is willing to proceed for data collection/field trip for less than one week period, s/he may do so on the recommendation of the concerned RAC and approved by the concerned head of the department.

12.2. The DRC may recommend a PhD scholar to pursue a part of his/her research work at a place out side the University, for a period of maximum 20 days at a stretch. However, if such recommendations are for a period beyond 20 days, the recommendations of the DRC would be placed before the Chairperson of RDCU who may permit a PhD scholar to pursue a part of his/her research work at a place outside the University without exceeding the maximum time limit for the submission of the thesis laid down in these regulations. The case shall be reported in next meeting of the RDCU.

13. Financial assistance

13.1. Subject to the availability of fellowships, the Ph. D. candidates, who are admitted as full-time research scholars through RET would be entitled to the University Research fellowship of such amount as may be decided by the University and/or directed by the UGC/MHRD/Government of India from time to time. This award shall be strictly subject to the fulfillment of all the conditions governing such awards.

13.2 In addition to the University Research Fellowship, such candidates may also be entitled for contingency grant in accordance with the decisions of the University.

13.3 The maximum duration for which the University Research Fellowship can be awarded to any Ph. D. student is three years. The award shall be on year-to-year basis subject to the satisfactory academic and research performance and satisfactory performance in the discharge of responsibilities assigned to him/her under the scheme.

13.4 In case of candidates having their own fellowship from various funding agency, the terms and conditions of the funding agency shall be applicable on the candidate.

13. Submission of Thesis

13.1. Prior to submission of the thesis, the candidate would have submitted at least six half-yearly progress reports to the Academic Section.

13.2. The DRC and RAC shall monitor the academic/research progress of each candidate. For this purpose, the candidate shall submit a progress report on a prescribed proforma in triplicate, at the end of each semester to the RAC through his/her supervisor and co-supervisor, if any.

13.3. The candidate shall present the progress of his/her research work through a seminar and the RAC shall evaluate the progress made by the candidate and submit its recommendations to the concerned DRC.

13.4. The Chairman of the DRC shall forward the progress report with specific recommendations to the Academic Section with a copy to the Dean of the faculty.

13.5. Progress of a candidate in any semester shall be deemed to be unsatisfactory if the candidate is absent for a period more than that specified in these regulations.

13.6. The candidate shall submit progress reports for each semester till the submission of the thesis. The last progress report of the candidate shall be submitted to Academic Section, in the manner prescribed, prior to three days of submission of thesis.

13.7. On completion of the research work for the PhD by a candidate, prior to submission of thesis, the supervisor shall organize a pre-submission seminar, in consultation with the Head of the Department/Centre, to apprise the teachers and other research workers of the Department/Faculty/Centre of the candidate's work and receive suggestions for improvement of the research work. The RAC and the DRC shall assess the work of the candidate through this seminar. The seminar will be held in the department and shall be open for all. The suggestion so emerged may suitably be incorporated into the draft thesis.

13.8. If the RAC or the DRC is not satisfied with the quality of the work of the candidate, then the candidate shall do further work and deliver a fresh seminar after a definite period specified by the DRC.

13.9. If the DRC is satisfied with the pre-submission seminar of the candidate, the Chairman of the DRC shall forward the application of the candidate for submission of the thesis along with a certificate about the satisfactory completion of the pre-submission seminar and the exact title of the thesis to the Controller of Examinations with a copy to the Dean of the faculty. Any extended residency period left beyond the date on which the thesis is forwarded for submission shall be deemed to have been terminated on the said date.

13.10. If a change of title of the thesis becomes necessary to address the desired objectives, the candidate may, apply to the RAC for modification of the title. The RAC, after consideration and approval, shall communicate the modification to the DRC. The exact title of the thesis shall be as approved by the DRC after the pre-submission seminar.

13.11. No major change in research topic shall be accepted after registration. However, if candidate and his/her supervisor are of the opinion that minor changes are necessary, they may report the case in the concerned DRC, upon approval, this should be notified to the office of Controller of Examinations for necessary action. Such changes are to be permitted for only once, before or after pre-submission seminar by the candidate.

13.12. The candidate is required to submit the thesis within six months from the date of his/her pre-submission seminar (without exceeding the maximum time limit for the submission of the thesis as laid down elsewhere in these regulations), failing which he/she shall be required to deliver a fresh pre-submission seminar.

13.13. One month prior to submission of the thesis the candidate has to submit six copies of the summary/abstract of the thesis, duly forwarded by Head of the concerned Department/centers, describing the salient features of his/her work to the office of Controller of Examinations.

13.14. The candidate is required to submit one soft copy of the thesis on CD in non-editable PDF format along with the hard copies of the same.

13.15. The candidate shall submit four hardbound printed copies of the thesis to the Controller of Examinations, duly forwarded by the Head of the Department/Coordinator of the School. The thesis shall contain the certificate by the supervisor in prescribed proforma, a declaration by the candidate in prescribed proforma, a course work completion certificate, pre-submission seminar completion certificate, and a copyright transfer certificate in prescribed proforma, anti-plagiarism statement and other necessary certificates, as required from time to time.

13.16. The model for cover and title page of the thesis has been specified as Appendix to these regulation and shall be strictly followed.

14.6. Language of the thesis

14.6.1. The language of the thesis shall be in English, except for the thesis submitted in the area of languages.

14.6.2. Even in case of languages, the candidate has to submit one page summary of the work in English in hard as well as soft copy.

14.7. As per UGC (Minimum Standards & Procedure for Award of M.Phil/PhD Degree) Regulation 2016, before submitting the thesis, the candidate shall have to publish minimum one research papers based on his/her research work in UGC recognized journals/refereed national/ international journals, as well as has to attend two seminars having relevance to his/her work. The printed copy of the published paper and proof of the attending seminar as an evidence has to be appended either reprint or acceptance letter of the same at the end of the thesis. In case, due to cogent reasons, the candidate was unable to attend two seminars, s/he has to publish another research paper in UGC recognized journals/refereed national and international journals, and append the same at the end of thesis as a proof.

14.8. The thesis must be a piece of original research work characterized by the discovery of facts or by fresh approach towards the interpretation of facts or theories on an applied work of great significance. In either case it shall evince the capacity of the candidate for critical examinations and independent judgment, it should also be satisfactory as far as literary presentation is concerned.

14.9. The University shall evolve a mechanism using well-developed software and gadgets to detect plagiarism and other forms of academic dishonesty. While submitting for evaluation, the thesis shall have an undertaking from the research scholar and a certificate from the Research Supervisor attesting to the originality of the work, vouching that there is no plagiarism and that the work has not been submitted for the award of any other degree/diploma of the same Institution where the work was carried out, or to any other Institution.

14.9. A thesis once submitted cannot be re-submitted except when the examiner recommends for the revision of the thesis.

15. Evaluation and Assessment methods

15.1. Along with summery/abstract, one month before thesis submission, the supervisor through concerned DRC shall submit a panel of at least six experts in the concerned subject representing different parts of the country, of which, not more than one should be from the single state, in prescribed format to the Controller of Examinations. The Vice-Chancellor may however ask for more names of experts, and in exceptional cases, may add names to the panel. However the names of expert must not be below the rank of Associate Professor or equivalent.

15.2. The Research supervisor has to ensure that suggested examiners must not be in blood relation with the PhD scholars as well as Research Supervisor.

15.3. In the case of a research scholar who has done any part of his/her work in another institution, the panel of examiners shall not include any person working in that institution.

15.4. In case the subject of research area is such that adequate numbers of experts are not available within the country; the panel may contain two names of experts from foreign countries

15.5. Concerned supervisor shall also be an examiner.

15.6. The Vice-Chancellor would then select and appoint two names from the panel as external examiners. The names shall be communicated to the office of the controller of examination by academic section for evaluation of the thesis.

15.7. The Controller of Examinations shall get in touch with each examiner with a copy of the summary/abstract to secure acceptance of the examinership. For this purpose, if e-mail address of the examiner is available, s/he shall be contacted through e-mail to get his/her consent at the earliest. If however, no information is received from an examiner within two-week period from first communication to the examiner. After this a reminder will be given to examiner, if no response is received within two-weeks, his/her appointment shall be cancelled and the Vice-Chancellor shall appoint a new examiner from the existing panel of examiners.

15.8. The PhD thesis submitted by a research scholar shall be evaluated by his/her Research Supervisor and at least two external examiners (selected by the Vice-Chancellor), who are not in employment of the University. The viva-voce examination, based among other things, on the critiques given in the evaluation report, shall be conducted by the Research Supervisor, at least one of the two external examiners, and concerned head of the department/Centres, and shall be open to be attended by Members of the Research Advisory Committee, all faculty members of the Department, other research scholars and other interested experts/researchers.

15.9. Examiners shall have to send their reports only in specified proforma.

15.10. If one of the evaluation reports of the external examiner in case of PhD thesis, is unsatisfactory and does not recommend viva-voce, the University shall send the thesis to another external examiner out of the approved panel of examiners and the viva-voce examination shall be held only if the report of the latest examiner is satisfactory. If the report of the latest examiner is also unsatisfactory, the thesis shall be rejected and the research scholar shall be declared ineligible for the award of the degree. In case one examiner accepts and another suggests for major revision, concerned DRC shall inform student and his supervisor to incorporate necessary changes to the satisfaction of DRC. If the external examiner has requested to resend the thesis to him after revisions, the same shall be forwarded to the examiner.

15.11. The University has to ensure that the entire process of evaluation of PhD thesis get complete the within a period of six months from the date of submission of the thesis.

16. Award of the Degree

16.1. In general, the PhD degree shall be awarded in the parental Master degree (i.e., in the subject in which candidate has done his/her masters) on the topic chosen and approved by DRC.

16.2. In case of interdisciplinary research and research carried out in specialized area requiring specialized qualifying degree, the degree will be awarded in the subject, in which the candidate has his/her master degree. For example, a candidate with M.Sc. in Biotechnology peruse his/her PhD from the Department of Botany, s/he shall be awarded PhD in Biotechnology from the Department of Botany, in a particular topic. However it will be done only in the subjects exiting in the University.

16.3. The date of award of degree shall be the date of issuance of notification by the University.

17. Unfair means and plagiarism

17.1. In case a PhD candidate is found adopting or suspected of adopting unfair means or lifting of other's work and inserting it in his/her work without proper acknowledgement, credit and reference. The university may take such penal action as may be necessary to uphold the sanctity and the integrity of the research work and the credibility of the university. The thesis must be prepared as per the guidelines of the Committee of Publication Ethics (CoPE).

17.2. The University Standing Committee appointed by the Academic Council for this purpose shall take suo-moto cognizance of all such cases. Such cases may also be reported by any person to the Standing Committee or the Head of the Department/Coordinator of the School/Dean of the faculty/Vice-Chancellor who will forward the matter to the Standing Committee for its consideration and recommendation.

17.3. For works involving animals, transgenic alien seeds, explants and hazards materials must comply with guidelines of animal ethics and bio-safety recommendations issued from time to time by GoI.

18. Temporary withdrawal from the programme (De-registration and Re-registration)

18.1. A candidate admitted to the PhD programme may be permitted by the RDCU on the recommendation of the RAC and the DRC to temporarily withdraw from the programme on some specific reasons (deregistration), and later allowed to join back to complete the research (re-registration) and submit the thesis, without exceeding the maximum prescribed time limit for the thesis submission as described in these regulations. This withdrawal may be granted for whole or part of the semesters. The temporary withdrawal may be permitted on any one of the following reasons:

18.1.1. If the candidate gets a professional employment.

18.1.2. If a fulltime sponsored candidate after fulfilling the minimum residency period requirement for the submission of the thesis joins back his/her parent organization.

18.1.4. Any other event in which the Vice-Chancellor is convinced that the situation faced by the research scholar warrants his/her temporary withdrawal from the programme without exceeding the maximum time-limit provided in these regulations for submission of thesis.

18.2. During the period of withdrawal the candidate will not be required to pay any fee. However, fee already paid (temporary withdrawal involving part of a semester) shall not be refunded.

18.3. The residential requirement of the candidates, who are allowed temporary withdrawal, shall be automatically extended by a period equivalent to the duration of the withdrawal, without exceeding the maximum period laid down in the regulations.
