About University and Department

The Indira Gandhi National Tribal University, Amarkantak has been established by an Act of the Parliament of India. It came into existence by the Indira Gandhi National Tribal University Act, 2007 and came into action on July 2008. The jurisdiction of the University extends to the whole country and it is fully funded by the Central Government through the University Grant Commission. The university caters to the tribals' long cherished dream of higher education.

The Department of Business Management, an earliest department along with the establishment of the university, offers two year MBA programme along with three year BBA program under aegis of faculty of commerce and management. The department is in infancy stage and is laying a strong foundation for preparing future business managers. The department is equipped with modern gadgets to support the cutting-edge teaching and research pedagogy. As many as six regular faculty members have joined the department with strong commitments of improving quality teaching and research. These faculty members are highly qualified and experienced with different specializations to teach and train the young budding minds aspiring to becoming business managers and entrepreneurs.
