131st Birth Anniversary of Bharat Ratna Dr. B.R Ambedkar
On 14th April 2022

Dr.Ambedkar Park,IGNTU at 08.00 AM

Dr. B.R. Ambedkar has been one of the prominent thinkers of the modern world. Dr. Ambedkar was one of the greatest minds who paved way for social transformation in India. His praxis and engagements into various academic disciplines and knowledge terrains pertaining to various aspects of human life are widely followed and referred. His commitment towards social and political activism had compelled him to develop a long standing obsession with emancipatory knowledge practice. His contribution was extended to a history, education, Economics, Sociology, Law, Anthropology, Linguistics, Political Science, Religion and Philosophy & others. Dr. Ambedkar's probing had direct social and ethical implications as he wanted it to be a means of social change. Dr. Ambedkar was a social philosopher in a more fundamental way. According to him "Philosophy has its roots in the problems of life and whatever theories philosophy propounds must return to society as instruments of reconstructing society. It is not enough to know. Those who know must endeavor fulfill. His social philosophy is inseparably linked with the idea of social justice which had its roots on basic human values like liberty, equality, and fraternity. His thinking was revolutionary, humanistic, and yet realistic based on the facts and realities of India society, especially strive for egalitarian political & sociocultural humans sphere. As a humanist, Dr. Ambedkar was in favor of imparting education for the development of all encompassing human personality.
