AIMS AND OBJECTIVES

The tribal people are rich in terms of morality culture, art and crafts. But in matters of higher education and policy making they are at the receiving end. In the present age of globalization the world has shrunk into a village as the society has advanced in technology. But the tribes, who are the custodians of Indian culture in the real sense of the term, are far behind in this race of advancement. In order to rescue the tribe from the present plight, the University has set the following aims and objectives to achieve.

relating to tribes and to provide inputs to the Government(s) on policy matters in different spheres.

- ❑ To take appropriate measures for promoting the tribal communities to be able to manage, administer and look after their own needs by accessing to higher education through a university of their own.
- ❑ To disseminate and advance knowledge by providing instructional and research facilities in such other branches of learning as it may deem fit.
- ❑ To take appropriate measures to promote innovations in the teaching learning process in the context of inter-disciplinary studies and researches and to pay special attention to improve social, educational and economic conditions and welfare of the scheduled tribes within the Union of India.

apart from the origin of Sone River and Johila River. This holy place is the abode of Goddess Narmada. This mystic power, the Hindu Pilgrim Center attracted Adi Shankaracharya and Poet Kabir, spelled bound many spiritual and peace seekers with its solitude and sacredness. A group of temples built by Kalachuri Maharaja Karnadeva of Kalachuri period has reminded it as an ancient Hindu religious center. There is a perfect match between the significance of Amarkantak, situated at an average elevation of 1048 metres (3438 ft) and the vision, mission, motto, objectives and goals of this National Tribal University. This University has fulfilled a long dream and demand of tribal populations of our country by offering UG, Diploma PG, Diploma, PG and PhD Programme with much focus on the preservation of tribal culture and heritage in the course curriculums at its main and regional campus after 60 years of India's Independence.

Situated at 22°40.9" N. latitude and 81°45.2" E. Longitude, 1067 meters above the sea level in the district of Anuppur in Madhya Pradesh, Amarkantak perches the Mekal Mountain that links the Vindhyan and the Satpura ranges. It is about 70 Kms away from the district headquarter. Three important rivers i.e. the Narmada, the Son and the Johila originate from here forming the lifeline of a major part of the country. The place has its religious importance too. The Kalachuri rulers constructed a cluster of temples that is still intact, of which, Mahendranath and Pataleshwar temples are more important. These temples are protected by the Archaeological Survey of India. There are about 12 temples. The Narmada temple is more important among them, which has been built around the springhead of the river. The temple was built by the Bhonsles of Nagpur.
